

New Hampshire Education Freedom Account (EFA) Program

New Hampshire's EFA program gives eligible families $3,700–$9,100 per student per year in public funds to personalize their child's education. Administered by the Children's Scholarship Fund NH (CSFNH), these funds can be used for private school tuition, homeschool curriculum, online courses, tutoring, and more. Parents control the funds through a digital ClassWallet Family Wallet.

QUICK FACTS

Name: Education Freedom Account (EFA) Program

Eligibility: Universal K–12 eligibility for New Hampshire families in 2026–27

Applications: Rolling. Apply by July 15 for full-year funding; later applications are prorated.

Scholarship Amount: Average $4,500–$5,000; up to ~$9,100 if student qualifies for "differentiated aid" (e.g., low-income, IEP, English Learner)

Qualifying educational expenses: Private School Tuition, Online Education, Textbooks, Curricula, Computers, Technology, and more!

How to Make a Purchase with EFA Funds

New Hampshire EFAs are managed using ClassWallet's Family Wallet platform. You can purchase Veritas Press materials directly or submit for reimbursement.

- ✔ ClassWallet Direct Pay — Log in at app.classwallet.com, go to "Marketplace" or "Find a Provider," and search for Veritas Press. Add your items to the cart and check out using EFA funds.
- ✔ Reimbursement — If you already purchased from Veritas Press, select "Start New Reimbursement" in ClassWallet. Upload your receipt, categorize the expense (e.g., curriculum or tuition), and submit for approval.
