

Syllabus: Fiction Writing Workshop

Course Description

In Fiction Writing, the focus is on developing the student's fiction writing skills by crafting character-centered stories in a workshop setting. Various writing exercises and readings will be done in and outside class. Students will complete a manuscript of finished work and learn the power of story writing. They will also learn how to both write and evaluate stories from a biblical perspective. Student work may be submitted to various contests and publications with ambitions that the student will have the work published. This course is eligible for dual enrollment credit for junior and senior diploma students. Homework will average about 3 - 4 hours per week.

Attendance and Participation

Both attendance and participation are vital parts of this course; therefore, students are required to attend class sessions and participate actively in discussions. Students are expected to view archives of any missed classes, and are responsible for obtaining any notes or assignments.

Students will be given quarterly grades for both participation and attendance:

- Fifteen percent of the final grade will be attributed to relevant class participation. This includes raising one's hand, commenting regularly via microphone/webcam, and using the chat box regularly to contribute to the academic conversation.
- Five percent of the final grade will be attributed to class attendance. Being present, being on time, and readiness for class are all factors to be considered in the class attendance grade. Excused absences will not detrimentally impact attendance grades.

Grading rubrics are located in the Course Documents folder in each course page.

Assignments & Exams

Students have regular reading assignments from handouts and assigned texts that must be completed before the assigned class time to allow for discussion and application. Periodic reading assessments will be given and will impact the Homework Assignments grade. Students will have weekly or biweekly writing assignments to be completed as homework and then discussed openly in class. Over the year, students will write several short stories, flash fiction pieces, and more.

This course has no formal tests. The Midterm and Final will be projects displaying the application of skills learned throughout the previous semester. Course grade is primarily based upon writing projects and homework completed throughout the year.

Evaluation

The final grade is determined on the following basis:

- | | |
|--------------------------------|-----|
| • Class Attendance | 5% |
| • Relevant Class Participation | 15% |
| • Homework Assignments | 30% |
| • Writing Projects | 40% |
| • Midterm / Final Assessment | 10% |

Grading Scale

The following grading scale will apply for all assignments and final grades.

100% – 90% = A; 89% - 80% = B; 79% - 70% = C; 69% - 60% = D; 59% - 50% = E; 49% - 40% = F. All grades are rounded to the nearest whole number.

Late Work

If a student fails to submit any assessment by the due date, it is considered "late."

- Assignments submitted 0-24 hours late will result in a 10 point reduction off earned grade.
- Assignments submitted 24-48 hours late will result in a 20 point reduction off earned grade.
- Assignments submitted 48-72 hours late will result in a 30 point reduction off earned grade.
- Assignments over 72 hours late will not be accepted and the student will receive a zero.
- Parent may request an extension from their child's teacher prior to the due date or in the case of an emergency.

While we love grace and the opportunity to exercise it, we also desire to instill a sound sense of responsibility in our students, hence these expectations pertaining to late work.

Exam/Test Retakes

Any student may retake a failed assessment (except quizzes), but can score no higher than 70% on the retake. Retakes must be submitted within one week of the returned, failed test. If the retake is not submitted within one week, the original failing grade will stand.

Academic Dishonesty

Cheating on any assignment is considered academic dishonesty. This includes plagiarism in any form. Cheating will be dealt with in the following manner:

- If a student is caught cheating, he will receive a zero on the assignment and will be placed on academic probation for the remainder of the school year.
- If the same student is caught cheating again, he will likely be expelled.
- No refunds will be granted for students who are expelled due to cheating.

- A Disciplinary Action Form will be submitted by the student's teacher for any instance of academic dishonesty.

Textbooks

The books needed for the class can be purchased through Veritas Press. It is extremely important that the student has the correct version/edition of these materials.
