North Carolina ESA+ Quick Start Guide

North Carolina's ESA+ program provides state-funded scholarships to support the education of K–12 students with disabilities. Families can receive either $9,000 or $17,000 annually, depending on the student's documented disability. These funds can be applied toward tuition at eligible private schools, homeschooling expenses, educational therapies, tutoring, and other approved services.

QUICK FACTS

Name: Education Student Accounts Plus (ESA+)

Eligibility: North Carolina residents with a documented disability who need special education or related services.

Applications: Annual priority window is typically February–March.

Average Amount: $9,000 or $17,000 for students with certain disabilities

Qualifying educational expenses: Private School Tuition, Online Education, Textbooks, Curricula, Computers, Technology, and more!

Using your ESA+ Funds

ESA+ is managed through NCSEAA's MyPortal and ClassWallet, which allows families to pay approved providers or request reimbursement for eligible out-of-pocket expenses.

- To use your ESA+ with Veritas Press, first log into your ClassWallet account: k12.ncseaa.edu/the-education-student-accounts/
- ClassWallet Direct Pay — After logging into your MyPortal account, go to the "Pay Vendor" section and search for Veritas Press in ClassWallet. Choose your products or tuition items and submit your purchase for review. Once approved by NCSEAA, funds will be released to Veritas and your order will be fulfilled.
- Reimbursement — If you made a qualified purchase from Veritas Press before your ClassWallet account was ready, you can request reimbursement. Upload your Veritas Press receipt in MyPortal under the "Reimbursements" tab and complete the claim form. If the item is eligible, funds will be returned to you or added back to your account balance.
